Business is Good.

"Business is rushing, thank you," said M. C. Chapman, secretary of the Phillips-Chapman Co., wholesalers automotive equipment, now located in their new home at 138 Third avenue, north.

This enterprising firm started business some eighteen months ago, and at this time are rated as one of the liveliest automotive equipment concerns in the state. This firm has only this week moved into their new quarters and now have a floor space about twice the size of that formerly used.

Dan W. Phillips, as general manager, and M. C. Chapman, as secretary, are in active charge of the concern, while G. A. Maxwell is president.

Their new building is one of the most modern and convenient in the city.—Nashville Tenn. Pressman.

Here is an Avoirdupois party which would be interesting to the young people. All the girls are weighed, and the weight of each written on a piece of paper and dropped into a hat, and the young men must draw. The young man must go to supper with the girl whose weight he draws, and must pay for her supper at one-half cent per pound. It is very exciting, as far as the young men are concerned. We suggest that the Ladies Aid Society try this when the weather gets cooler.

An inquirer in a city paper wants to know if it is legal for a young man of thirty to adopt a young woman of twenty-five. It is—with a wedding ring.

First Aeroplane Draws Big Crowd to Gainesboro.

Saturday was indeed "One Big Day in Gainesboro," the event being the appearance of the first aeroplane here. The coming of the aeroplane was advertised throughout the county, the Sentinel bearing the first news to thousands of citizens, and later a large poster was mailed to every patron of the rural routes in the county.

The day dawned bright and clear and at an early hour everything was in readiness for the big event. The outhouse yard and streets around the square assumed the appearance of a country fair, with the booths of the soft drinks venders, and the small boys selling toy balloons added further gayety to the scene.

The crowd began to arrive at an early hour, coming from all parts of the county. By ten o'clock several thousands people had arrived and they continued to stream in until noon, when a conservative estimate placed the number of people at 4,500 to 5,000. The old and the young had come, entire families, old maids and bachelors, young men and sweethearts, those who had never been in Gainesboro before were here—all for one purpose, to see their first aeroplane.

As the time approached for the appearance of the aeroplane the people begin to look to the southeast, from which direction it was to come, and to seek advantage position, that they may be first to see the aeroplane.

At a few minutes after one o'clock the cry went up "here she come," and off to the southeast, high in the sky, appeared the plane, and like a great bird come sailing over the town at an altitude of several hundred feet.

The plane was piloted by S. G. Irwin, of Chattanooga, who showed his skill in putting the plane thru several aerial stunts, including the loop-to-loop, nose spine, side glide, etc. Earl Burgess, of Indianapolis, Ind., thrilled the vast crowd by his daring stunts of hanging by his hands and feet from beneath the plane and standing on the wings while the plane traveled 80 miles an hour.

After concluding the stunts the plane dropped to a low altitude, making several circles over the town dropping the thousand tickets containing the lucky numbers, and then off to the landing field at the Williams farm on Roaring river.

As the tickets neared the earth a wild scramble was made for them. Nothing could stop the onrush of the crowd, and it made no difference where they fell, on house tops, barns, in trees, gardens or yard, eager hands grasped them. Several hundred were caught by a high wind and carried over the hills east of town. The ticket drawing Dennis & Tinsley lucky number was found late in the evening Perry Vanhooser, Jr., in the Vanhooser pasture 4 miles east of town. The tickets drawing the lucky numbers at Garage, Quarles & McCawley, M. P. Bailey, Draper & Draper, Cumberland Grocery Co., H. M. Haile, Drug store and Hotel were found in town. The lucky numbers of the Sentinel, Cash Grocery Co. Bank and Gainesboro D G Co., were not found. Neither were the two free aeroplane tickets.

It was a big day and business men of the town, who bore the expense of bringing the aeroplane here, were highly pleased with the results.

The plane stayed over until Sunday and carried the following citizens on ten minutes joy ride: J. W. Draper, J. L. McCawley, J. C. Darwin, (2 trips) J. M. Draper, (2 trip) Gordon Hunter, Frank Bailey, Grady Gore, Taylor Roddy, Miss Josie Roddy (first girl in county to fly) Nathan Roberts and Herman Williford. $10 a trip was charged.

Trauant Officer Elected.

The County Board of Education has elected Amos Pharris truant officer. Teachers will be furnished blank reports, which they will be required to fill out and send in with other monthly reports.

Since the State Fund beginning with July, 1922, is to be distributed on the average daily attendance of the preceeding school term, it is highly important that our teachers be impressed with the absolute necessity of their enrolling as nearly as possible 100 p. c. of the scholastic population, and of keeping the enrollment up to the highest possible daily attendance.

If parents wish their children to have the benefits of school this does not in any way effect them, but only those who do not realize the importance of giving their child an equal chance with other children. So please send your child to school. We promise you all consideration if your child is sick, or there is sickness in your family, we ask you to do your part, which is certainly your duty not only to yourself, but to your child.

Very Respt.
Estelle Gailbreath, Co. Supt.

Miss Lyda Brown.

Lyda, the 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brown of White's Bend, died at her home Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock of typhoid fever. Funeral services were conducted by Bro. John Fox and J. T. Draper, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Brown cemetery.

All the care and love that skilled physicians and anxious parents could devise and apply was brought into play, but the fiat of Him who rules our incoming and outgoing had been issued, and after an illness of four weeks, despite the prayers and entreaties of all who knew her and loved her, their appeals were overruled and the spirit took its flight to that home the Christian believes is the fulfillment of the life everlasting.

Besides her parents she is survived by three sisters; Dixie, Dorothy and Alma, and a large number of relatives and friends.

Young People Have Narrow Escape From Death.

Misses Edith Anderson and Doris Haile and Messrs. Walter Fuqua and Ulmont Heady had a very narrow escape from death Sunday evening at 5:30 o'clock, when the automobile in which they were riding plunged down a steep hill on the Brooks Ferry road, 1 1/2 miles from Gainesboro.

The young people, with Miss Anderson at the wheel, were en route to the Freestate and had reached a point on the road (which winds around the hill) that is only wide enough for one car. At this point they meet the J S Raggio and family in a car coming in the opposite direction. To allow him to pass Miss Anderson run the car in a deep ditch on the upper side of the road. When the oncoming car had passed, the young lady thru on all the power of the engine, to pull out of the ditch, and as the car came out it shot across the road and ran into a page fence. This checked the car long enough for Miss Anderson and Mr. Heady to escape, Mr Fuqua having gotten out when the car run into ditch. Miss Haile was unable to escape from the car and was carried on with it. After smashing down the fence the car plunged down the hill, thru a thicket of bushes, and at a point 150 feet below the road, the front wheel broke, causing the car to end up throwing Miss Haile out. The car then righted itself, and after turning completely around stopped against a tree.

Miss Haile was rendered unconscious, and it appeared at first that she was critical injured. She soon recovered and by the assistance of Mr. Raggio and Mr. Fuqua reached the road and placed in a car. Dr. Gaw soon arrived and on examination it was found the young lady had only sustained a sever shakeup and several bruises and scratches on her limbs. Miss Haile in speaking of the accident stated, that the only thing she thought of, as the car plunged down the hill, was how to get out. As the top was sweep off by the rush of the car thru the bushes, she dropped to the bottom of the car, and thus escaped from being struck by the limbs. The last she remembered of the wild plunge down the hill, was when the top stay, to which she was holding, was torn from her grasp. Her next remembrance was when Mr. Raggio spoke asking how bad she was hurt.

The news of the accident spread like wildfire and soon a large crowd had arrived on the scene to render any help that was needed, and to learn the particulars of the accident. It was indeed fortunate that all escaped as they did and everybody was thankful that it was no worse. The damage to car amounted to $250.

"Ouija! What's the good word?"

MY YOUNG sister,
HAS A Ouija board.
AND SHE believes it.
AND TALKS to Noah.
AND I think she talks.
TO HER best fellow.
WHO'S DEAD but doesn't know it.
AND I used to give her.
THE LOUD, rude laugh.
BUT I'M sorry now.
BECAUSE LAST night,
I WAS home alone,
SO I got the board,
AND PUT in a call.
FOR JOHN Barleycorn.
AND OTHER departed spirits.
BUT THE line was busy.
FOR NOTHING happened.
THEN I cheated a little.
AND IT spelled this.
"GRAMMASHOTTA SEVEN."

SO I shut off quick.
TO HEAD off any.
FURTHER FAMILY scandal.
THEN I stopped to smoke.
A CIGARETTE.
AND AFTER a while,
I CRANKED up weejeen,
AND ALL of a sudden,
IT STARTED off.
AND QUICK as a flash,
IT SAID something.
"THEY SATISFY."

"SATISFY"—that's the good word. Just light up a Chesterfield and see what experts can do with fine Turkish and Domestic tobacco when they blend them in that can't-be-copied Chesterfield way. You'll say "they satisfy."

Did you know about the Chesterfield package of 10?
